"The Bible still remains the great sublime, enduring work of the Eternal who loves righteousness and hates iniquity." Dr. Newman

STOOPING TO CONQUER, WE ARE CONQUERED.

By WARREN A. CHANDLER, D. D., LL. D.

(Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.) The temptation to do evil that good 1 may come of it is one which easily besets a man who wishes to do good. But it is a deluslon and a snare. We can not hope to reap a harvest of good from sowing secds of evil-This was the essence of the third temptation of Jesus in the wilderness. "The devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of this world. and the glory of them; and saith unto him, all these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me." It was a proposal that the King of kings and Lord of lords should "stoop to conquer."

The final triumph of holiness in the earth will be when "the kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of the Lord" (Revelation 12.15); but Jesus could not consent to make a short cut to that result by way of a compromise. He chose rather to reach it by the longer and harder, but surer way of the cross.

It is a deadly form of infidelity to believe that the right is so weak that it can not win without an alliance with the wrong. There is no darker athelam than to believe that God can not or will not care for his own cause.

Jesus did not consider for a moment the proposal that he become a vassal of Satan by an act of homage. He aimed at a kingdom and a crown, but not under Satan's suzerainty. To the diabolical suggestion came his sharp response, "Get thee hence Satan; for it is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

It is of the same substance as devil-worship to attempt to do good by doing evil. It never can be right to do wrong. The man or the church which stoops to conquer is always conquered by stooping. which stoops to conquered by stooping.

What Mother's Day Should Mean To You

Tomorrow is Mother's Day, and will be observed in all of America, as well as in Japan, China, and civilized parts of Africa. This movement was started several years ago, and is yearly gaining in strength, promising to become well-nigh universal. Its object is "to recall the memories of mothers that are gone, and through loving words and care to brighten the lives of mothers that remain, and to help the children and men and women to a greater blessing in honoring their fathers and mothers. * * * It away from home, write her a love letter, send her a telegram, use the longdistance phone, or special delivery letter."
